

“Ultra modern living in old Tewantin”

Another property SOLD by Anna Fraser.

This magnificent, brand new single level home is perfectly suited for just about everyone! Ideal for retirees, young families and investors.

Hidden behind the simplistic facade of the double garage lies a unique architect designed, one off residence.

The very welcoming entrance leads you to the front door and spacious vestibule.

Features of this very special property include:

- Large open plan living and dining
- Beautifully appointed white kitchen with stone bench tops
- Stunning and very sumptuous master suite with private balcony and restored French Colonial shutters
- A separate wing off the main living area encompasses two great bedrooms, bathroom & large laundry
- The beautiful front living room may also be used as a fourth bedroom
- Three outdoor entertaining spaces complete the picture

This home is an absolute must to inspect. Call Anna for a viewing or attend the advertised open home.
