Rob and Racheal of Robert James Realty present to the market this gorgeous Queenslander full of character. In this part of the woods, they are as rare as hens teeth and certainly don't come on the market very often.

Wrap around verandahs from the front to the side and another at the rear, provides the owners multiple options depending on the time of day on where to enjoy your morning coffee or afternoon wine. 4 good sized bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and a large open plan, air conditioned living / dining / kitchen area centralised as the hub of the home. Timber floors in the main living space which compliments the character of the home and exudes warmth, carpet in the bedrooms for comfort and brand new tiles in the floors of all wet areas. The kitchen overlooks the National park as does the living area. T

There is plenty of cupboard storage and bench space. A dishwasher, electric freestanding cooker and rangehood.

2 bedrooms to the front of the home, the master suite to the side with ensuite and air conditioning and a further bedroom to the rear. All with built-in robes and fans. Main bathroom with shower, vanity and bathtub. Separate toilet and the laundry aside.

Side drive access to the rear. Two double carports plus a single bay shed for storage/workshop/home tinkerer. A small garden shed to the rear right.

Enjoy no neighbour to your right side with an outlook to the National park which continues across the road in front of the property. This home has a homely feeling as most Queenslanders do. If you are after something a little different and not your standard brick and tile home, then this may be for you.

* Whilst all care is taken with information given on the property, Robert James Realty does not warrant any planning or council approvals and buyers are encouraged to do their own council searches.
