office and the Master bed is complete with an ensuite and a view of the rear garden and pool.

Outside there is a vast undercover entertaining area running the length of the home as well as a huge inground pool surrounded by tropical gardens and a small lawned area to the side. An excellent entertaining space large enough for outdoor dining, lounging and an outdoor shower for the kids after their day of swimming in the pool. A studio/workshop is also located to the left-hand side ideal for the person who likes to tinker, or the budding artist and side access is provided to the rear of the property on both sides of the home. A double carport to the front providing plenty of off-street parking.

This home is very close to the golf course, schools, shops and public transport. Gleneagles Park is just around the corner for the kids. Great value for money. Get in quick!
